

WELCOME TO ST. VINCENT
by Alban Henry

Verse 1

St. Vincent an island, set in the Caribbean
Is widely regarded as the gem of the Antilles
It specially caters for holiday makers
So do not omit it when yo visit the West Indies

Chorus

Come to St. Vincent,
A friendly welcome awaits you
Renown for its sun and sea
And the best hospitality

Verse 2

No winter to fear, no smog in the air
Jus beautiful sunshine from the Caribbean sky
No contamination from poor sanitation
This land is a health resort that nobody can deny

Verse 3

The Grenadines Islands, fine tourist attraction
With waters that beckon you to swim all your cares away
The white sandy beaches you'll shower with praises
And take away mem'ries that with you forever will stay

Verse 4

The dishes you'll relish, souvenirs you'll cherish
And sight seeing tours most refreshing tropical breeze
Then from the West Indies, take back pleasant mem'ries
Of your holiday in the Gem of the Antilles

Verse 5

See the market vendors, hear the loud street criers
Couples passing by in the cool of the setting sun
Pleasure so inviting, legends so exciting
In this land Hairouna lovely isle in the Caribbean
